SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

There is a possibility that rioting, similar to that which occurred at the International Conference of American States in Bogota, Colombia, in April 1948, may occur during the conference of United States diplomats in Bangkok, beginning 13 February 1950.* Inflammatory articles have appeared in sections of the Thai press, particularly in the paper Chak Thai, which headlined the visit of Philipp Jessup as a pretext for using Thai soil as a headquarters for United States imperialism.

25X1A

Comment. A violent propaganda campaign is probable during the conference and anti-American incidents are possible; however, mass demonstrations are unlikely.
